Herbold at K 2025

Magpet commissions Herbold Meckesheim with another PET bottle washing line

Duesseldorf, Germany, October 2025 – Indian preform and plastic packaging manufacturer Magpet Polymer Pvt Ltd has commissioned Herbold Meckesheim with another PET bottle washing line.

Indroneel Goho, President & CEO of Magpet Polymers Pvt Ltd, visited Herbold at its booth 9B34 at K 2025 to sign the contract.

The new washing line is an extension of the bottle-to-bottle recycling plant that Coperion and Herbold Meckesheim are currently installing for Magpet in India. The granulators and an initial washing line have already successfully commenced operation. With the new washing line, Magpet will be able to increase its PET washing capacity by a factor of 2 to 2.5.

“By using innovative technologies, we produce first-class packaging and distribute it globally to our customers. The system solutions and expertise of Herbold Meckesheim and Coperion meet our requirements exactly – for the benefit of our customers. And at the same time, we can increase recycling rates,” said an enthusiastic Indroneel Goho at the signing of the contract.

“We at Coperion and Herbold Meckesheim are very proud that Magpet has once again placed its trust in us and our technologies. The washing line confirms our vision of advancing plastic recycling with innovative solutions. We look forward to the next steps in our joint journey with Magpet,” said Markus Parzer, President Performance Materials Division, Coperion.

About Herbold Meckesheim
