Press release

Coperion Acquires German Food and Pharmaceutical Specialist Gabler Engineering

- Leverages Gabler's key extruder technology and knowledge in forming, coating, and feeding equipment
- Enhances Coperion's food and pharmaceutical portfolio

Stuttgart, Germany, July 2022 – Coperion has recently acquired food and pharmaceutical specialist Gabler Engineering GmbH, enhancing Coperion's food and pharmaceutical portfolio. Gabler Engineering, based in Malsch, Germany, specializes in the design, engineering, manufacturing, and implementation of plants and equipment for the confectionery and pharmaceutical industries.

Gabler's strong position in the confectionery and pharmaceutical businesses builds on Coperion's existing food and pharmaceutical capabilities. The acquisition will leverage Gabler Engineering's key strategic technology and know-how to enhance and support Coperion's strategic growth opportunities in the food and pharmaceutical industries.

"Food and pharmaceutical are among Coperion's strategic growth end markets, and we believe this acquisition will help us continue to enhance our existing business by leveraging Gabler's expertise, reputation, and brand recognition in the industry," said Kevin Buchler, Coperion Division President Strategic Markets / Aftermarket Sales and Services. "We have strong relationships with several multinational corporations and adding Gabler's key strategic technology and expertise enables us to create more value for our customers."
