

"Hairy" Problems Sound Familiar? Let's Find a Solution Together!

When quality becomes a challenge

- 1 Quality problems from dust and streamers
- 2 System downtime caused by contamination and maintenance

Impact on your operation

Production stoppages

Waste of resources

Loss of customer trust

Damage to your reputation

More quality. Less downtime.

What Coperion Provides

- Tailor-made solutions for your production
- Optimization of your plant for greater efficiency & quality
- Long-term support for systems and processes

What We Need from You

- Your specific task or challenge
- 50 kg of your product for trials in our test center

Where solutions take shape: The Coperion Test Center

→ for Material Handling

Step 1: Free assessment of your current situation

Joint development of the task in a non-binding, free consultation

Step 2: Customized action plan

- Detailed analysis of your specific situation and process chain
- Consideration of critical interfaces with high quality risks

Step 3: Laboratory and pilot-scale trials

- Comparison with the Coperion database
- Evaluation of all influencing parameters

Did You Know?

Coperion has experience with over 20,000 different bulk materials

Step 4: Final report with results and recommendations

Identifying sources of error

- Report with comprehensive solution approaches along the process chain
- Joint definition of concrete measures
- Close support from Coperion during implementation

Contact us for a no-obligation consultation!

→ technikum@coperion.com

Coperion is the industry and technology leader in extrusion and compounding systems, feeding systems and bulk material handling plants.

For more information please visit www.coperion.com or contact info@coperion.com

Follow us

